

LIVESTOCK

Ron Wilson-Livestock Superintendent General Rules 2025

STATE, LOCAL, AND LIVESTOCK RULES: Please see 2025 State Rules for California Fairs available at the Fair Office or at www.plumas-sierracountyfair.net. All Local and General Livestock Rules apply to all livestock departments. Unless Local Rules are more restrictive, State rules supersede. See individual livestock species for additional rules.

Entry Information:

Exhibitors must fill in official entry form. Please see page 9 for further instructions. All Livestock Entry Forms must be in the Fair Office or postmarked by FRIDAY, JUNE 27 AT 5 PM UNLESS OTHERWISE STATED.

Include the following entry information:

- (1) Owner's Name, Address, Phone number, Email (if applicable);
- (2) Breed; (3) Name of Animal; (4) Sex, and (5) Date and Year of Birth

An Exhibitor's signature on the Entry Form signifies acceptance of the rules and schedules governing the Plumas-Sierra County Fair

- Fair, Livestock, and Horse Show Management are not responsible for finding errors in entries.
- No animal shall be shown in both market and feeder classes.
- A copy of the bill of sale is required to accompany all market animal livestock entries. The bill of sale must be from your breeder or who you purchased the animal from and include: Name, Address, Phone Number, Date you purchased the animal, breed, animal species, sex, I.D., if any (sheep – scrapies tag #, hog – ear notching, cattle – tattoo, brand or ear tag/mark), the price you paid for it and the sellers signature. ATTENTION SWINE EXHIBITORS: Your Bill of Sale must state that your animal was raised in compliance with Proposition 12.
- If you are the breeder, a breeder's statement is required to accompany all market animal livestock entries. The breeders statement form is available at www.plumas-sierracountyfair.net.

Entry Refunds: Refer to page 9.

Registration Papers:

Original registration papers must be presented to management for all registered animals prior to showing.

Photo copies ARE NOT ACCEPTABLE for any purpose in any division or department other than the Horse Show Divisions.

Livestock Accommodations:

Accommodations will be assigned by management and are tentative pending the arrival of all animals. Stall changes may occur up to 5am on Tuesday, July 22

Range cattle pens may be available to ALL beef exhibitors for $25.00 and is subject to availability. This would be for night penning and/or exercise and is at the discretion of the Livestock Superintendent and Fair Management. Pens must be cleaned prior to departure from the fairgrounds or a cleaning fee may be imposed. Cattle are only allowed in pens AFTER 8:00 PM.

Cattle grooming chutes may be allowed in the barns if space is available to all clubs and chapters and is done in the assigned area and is supervised by an Advisor or Project Leader. This is at the discretion of the Livestock Superintendent and Fair Management.

The management reserves the right to refuse entries when facilities are filled. Exercise of animal must be done prior to 10:00 a.m.

Your animal is required to stay in assigned pen.

Animals shall be moved back to the barns by 9:00 am daily.

Arrival:

No livestock arrival prior to 5:00 am Monday, July 21, 2025. All large livestock must be in place by noon on Tuesday, July 22, 2025.

Cleanliness:

Livestock pens and stalls must be cleaned prior to 9:00 AM each day and kept clean throughout the day.

All exhibitors must be neatly attired and conduct themselves in a quiet, orderly manner.

All water hoses must have an automatic shutoff nozzle attached to it!

Feed and Bedding:

EXHIBITORS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR PROVIDING ALL BEDDING FOR LIVESTOCK.

Only shavings can be used as bedding in all barns. ONLY REASONABLE AMOUNTS WILL BE ALLOWED.

When cleaning pens all bedding materials must be disposed of in designated manure area. Do not deposit garbage in manure area.

Accident or Loss Responsibility:

The Fair and Management will not be responsible for any damage, fire, theft, or accident that may happen on the fairgrounds. Exhibition of livestock is at owner or participant's risk.

Signing the entry blank indemnifies Plumas/Sierra County Fair and the State of California against all legal proceedings. For further information see page 9.

Liability Insurance:

County, District and State Fairs cannot legally carry liability insurance covering exhibitors and/or their exhibits. Liability insurance is the responsibility of and at the discretion of the Exhibitor. Insurance may be purchased through CFSA, contact the Fair Office.

Vet/Health Check:

Beginning July 21, 2025 through the duration of the fair there will be random vet/health checks of all livestock.

If you observe an animal that appears sick or diseased, please report it to the livestock office at once.

Official Fair Veterinarian:

The Plumas-Sierra County Fair and the Official Fair Veterinarian DOES NOT provide veterinary services free of charge nor does it assume financial responsibility for sick or injured animals. However, it is the prerogative of Fair management to call for veterinarian services when it feels the health and safety of any or all animals are at risk. If this is the case, the owner will be responsible for any fees incurred, due at time of treatment. Decisions of Official Fair Veterinarian are final and uncontested.

Unruly Animals:

For public safety, the Livestock Superintendent or Fair Management may disqualify an unruly animal at any time; such animal will be required to leave the fairgrounds immediately.

Mandatory Livestock Exhibitor Meeting

Mandatory meeting for all large livestock exhibitors to be held on Tuesday, July 22 after the 2:00 p.m. weigh in at the SPI Pavilion Show Ring. Exhibitor packets will be distributed at this time.

FAIR CAMPING CHECKLIST

- Your 2025 Fair Camping Application must be turned in to the Fair Office before March 31. The form is available on the Fair Website.
- Previous year campsites will be held as long as possible, but cannot be guaranteed after March 31.
- Requests for campsites can be made, but not guaranteed. Previous year campers cannot "pass on" their campsites to specific individuals.
- Fill out application completely and sign on back.
- A check for $150.00 made out to P.S.C.F. MUST be sent in with your application.
- Months of work go into assigning campsites, PLEASE do not make arrangements to switch campsites without Fair approval. Knowingly moving campsite names can result in losing your own campsite for the Fair. Plus, it's embarrassing.

ATTENTION: There is no proof of insurance necessary this year.
