No public comment

5. MANAGER'S REPORT

Manager Steffanic reported that the request for determination on State Rules from Fairs and Expositions has not been responded to.

In response to inquiries as to why the fair has not hired more people for various functions, the Fair Manager reported that employment advertisements began in Spring of 2022 for office help, maintenance, landscaping and janitorial workers. Throughout the entire year, there were only 6 applicants and all were hired. Two of those took over the flower projects after Fred Surber retired on a part time basis. The rest were maintenance workers who worked full time throughout the season.

6. OLD BUSINESS

A. Livestock Rule Change

Without a determination from Fairs and Expositions, the matter was put off until the November 16, 2022 meeting.

6. NEW BUSINESS

A. Request/Agreement for CDFA Annual Allocation

A motion was made by Chairman Noble to accept Agreement 22-1509-000-SG from California Department of Food and Agriculture and request disbursement of the annual allocation of $48,700. Seconded by Griffin. Passed unanimously.
